

2005-2006 SOCIAL MARSHALS
E.A. LANEY HIGH SCHOOL

Teachers:

The Social Marshals program is an extra-curricular organization that emphasizes character, academics, and community service. Students in this program will be acting as Ambassadors of E.A. Laney High School. Some of the many responsibilities of a Social Marshal include participation as Ushers for Senior Awards and Graduation, Host/Hostesses for Senior Reception and hosting many other events for our Seniors. Please take time to nominate ONE worthy junior male or female to be a part of this program. This student must work as a team member and be able to meet all of the Social Marshal responsibilities. The following criteria should be considered when making this nomination.

Must maintain at least a 2.5 GPA

Junior (11th grade)

No (past or future) referrals to the Dean's office

Three recommendations from teachers (including one academic and one elective)

Must be able to purchase required attire

Must be willing to participate in fundraiser if needed

Student must complete volunteer service within three months

Student must have means of transportation to mandatory meetings and events

Must attend all mandatory events and meetings

Must be a student that undoubtedly represents the best of Laney

Please return your nomination to Miss Jones's box on or before this Friday, October 21, 2005.

How do you know this student?

I would also like to take this opportunity to get a list of names of those teachers who would be interested in the selection process of this year's Social Marshals. This is not a commitment, this is a list of those who would like to be informed of the date on which the selection will take place. I am especially interested in teachers who are involved with juniors, but all teachers are welcome.

- Yes I am interested in participating in the selection process of this year's Social Marshals.
