

NHCS-TV Wins Two Communicator Awards...

The winners of The 2009 Communicator Awards have been announced by the International Academy of the Visual Arts, and NHCS-TV is honored to be the recipient of two of these competitive awards honoring creative excellence for Education Programming.

The Communicator Awards are judged and overseen by the International Academy of the Visual Arts (IAVA), a 450+ member organization of leading professionals from various disciplines of the visual arts dedicated to embracing progress and the evolving nature of traditional and interactive media. Current IAVA membership represents a "Who's Who" of acclaimed media, advertising, and marketing firms including: Condè Nast, Coach, Disney, The Ellen Degeneres Show, Estee Lauder, HBO, Keller Crescent, Monster.com, MTV, Polo Ralph Lauren, Sotheby's Institute of Art, Tribal DDB, Victoria's Secret, Wired, Yahoo!, and many others.

"The quality, creativity and execution of this year's work is a true testament to the talents and abilities of communications professionals from around the world. The entries received reflect an increasingly diversified industry and the work once again sets the bar extremely high. noted Linda Day, director of the IAVA. She added, "On behalf of the entire Academy, we are honored to have once again judged the 15th Annual Communicator Awards and we are proud to honor the outstanding communications professionals who continue to push a high standard of excellence."

The Music Show is a winner of the 2009 Communicator Award in the Education Category. Hosted by Music Teacher Jeremy Mathews the program showcases NHCS wonderful music programs.

NHCS The Morning Show is a winner of the 2009 Communicator Award in the Education Category. Anchored and crewed by students this show informs, entertains, and educates.
