

To Wilmington Early College Parents

Please join us for our 2009 Fall Counselor and Liaison Info Sessions

If you're like most parents, you have questions about your son's or daughter's early college experience. You want them to succeed and to become independent, yet you worry they won't get the most out of the opportunity before them. How can you help support them, while nurturing their ability to take charge of their own education and future?

At our first meeting of the year, we'll discuss:

- College readiness and the Accuplacer tests
- Degree and course planning
- Registration protocols and expectations
